California Faucets Unveils Ultra-Thin Showerhead with a Traditional Twist

Easy to clean and available in an abundance of artisan-applied finishes, the solid brass showerhead elegantly blends classic style with streamlined modern design

(Huntington Beach, CA, January 17, 2023) “Ultra-slim” and “traditional” aren’t phrases you hear used together very often. But California Faucets brings a new twist to classic design. Their new traditionally styled ultra-thin showerhead features familiar shapes traditional style enthusiasts will appreciate, but in a super-slim, 1-inch-thin design. The new option adds a touch of elegance to today’s spa-inspired baths while giving designers, architects, and homeowners even more choices for creating luxuriously personalized spaces.

“Thin showerheads are a rarity when it comes to traditional styles. Our new streamlined traditional option offers a sleeker alternative to the bulkier designs that you’ll typically find on the market,” says Noah Taft, California Faucets Chief Marketing Officer.

Traditional style in a compact, 1-inch-thin showerhead.

Made of solid brass, new ultra-slim traditional showerheads replace old-school “raincan” showerheads and blend beautifully with both classic and transitional décor themes. Homeowners will appreciate the addition of self-cleaning rubber jets, which make the ultra-slim traditional showerhead a breeze to maintain.

Like all California Faucets products, the new ultra-thin traditional showerhead is available in a selection of 25-plus artisan finishes—including 15 PVD finishes with a lifetime warranty against tarnishing. The vast variety of finishes, combined with the array of styles from traditional and transitional to contemporary, means California Faucets now offers an ultra-thin showerhead for virtually every design need.

The traditional SH-148 showerhead starts at $459 for the 8-inch size in Polished Chrome.
