(Huntington Beach, CA, December 21, 2023) California Faucets expands their award-winning Kitchen Collection with a vast array of Pot Fillers, allowing designers and homeowners to make a perfectly coordinated style statement in the kitchen. The ability to mix-and-match dozens of handle styles with a wide variety of artisan finishes makes the company's array of Pot Fillers among the largest in the industry. Each solid brass Pot Filler features the same Italian-inspired design and California craftsmanship as the original Kitchen Collection and is designed to coordinate with a complete line of matching kitchen accessories for a cohesive style statement.

"A 'cookie-cutter' pot filler just doesn't cut it in a well-styled kitchen," says California Faucets Chief Marketing Officer, Noah Taft. "There's a genuine sense of luxury when pot fillers and faucets perfectly coordinate with soap dispensers and cabinet hardware, especially when they're all finished-to-order by human hands," Taft adds.

Besides the convenience of no longer lugging heavy pots to the sink and keeping the sink open for other tasks, pot filler faucets add a sculptural sense of art to the cooktop and bring a kitchen to its fullest potential. The assortment of California Faucets' handle options means that your "art" can be customized to coordinate with any style of décor from traditional to contemporary. Handle styles include sweeping curves, porcelain accents, streamlined sticks, industrial wheels and levers, and everything in between.

Once you've mixed and matched the faucet body with the ideal handle style, your Pot Filler may be hand-finished in any of California Faucets 25-plus finish options. This includes 12 ultra-durable PVD (Physical Vapor Deposition) finishes guaranteed not to tarnish.

Every California Faucets Pot Filler is made of the highest quality solid brass and contains no plastic parts. They feature sturdy mounting systems that are easy to install and all Pot Fillers are made-to-order in the company's Huntington Beach factory.

Pricing for pot fillers starts at $1,195 in Polished Chrome.
