California Faucets Expands Single-Hole Bel Canto Series With Sleek New Widespread Version

Two new spout styles echo the streamlined vibe of the original single-hole design, while ushering in even more possibilities for a distinctively personalized bath environment

(Huntington Beach, CA October 31, 2024) California Faucets unveils a new faucet design for the popular Bel Canto series. Joining the original single-hole faucet—which features a thin rectangular spout that delivers water in a vertical sheet—the widespread version sports a similar profile with thin, vertical lever handles. The addition of two captivating spout options, a curved Arc and “soft geometric” Quad, offers even more options for creating a strikingly customized modern bath retreat.

“Adding a widespread faucet design brings even more versatility and creativity to the Bel Canto series,” says California Faucets CEO Jeff Silverstein. “Less may be more when it comes to minimalism. But when it comes to product choices within that motif, we think more is more,” Silverstein adds.

Designers and homeowners alike can now choose between the original single-hole style Bel Canto faucet, which features a Lever or Cylinder handle and thin vertically-oriented waterfall spout, or the widespread design paired with the spout of their choice. The curved Arc spout adds a touch of lightness and the Quad spout puts a softer spin on angles. Meanwhile, lever handles evoke the same streamlined elegance as the original vertically oriented spout, furthering the series status as modern “art” for the bath.

The expanded Bel Canto series makes it easy to carry the look through the entire bath. Elements include Roman Tub sets, a Handshower Diverter, Bar/Prep faucets, Tub and Shower Trim (including StyleTherm®), Bidet Sets, Towel Bars and Rings, Hooks, Paper Holders, and more.

Like all California Faucets products, the Widespread Bel Canto is made of solid brass and is available in 25-plus artisan-applied finishes, including Physical Vapor Deposition (PVD) finishes, which are guaranteed not to tarnish.

List pricing for the Widespread Bel Canto faucet starts at $895 for Polished Chrome finish.

“Adding a widespread faucet design brings even more versatility and creativity to the Bel Canto series. Less may be more when it comes to minimalism. But when it comes to product choices within that motif, we think more is more.”
