California Faucets Brings a Rainbow of Color to the Bath with New Porcelain Handles

From muted neutrals to vibrant bolds, two styles of colorful porcelain handles offer a new way to play with color in virtually any bath style

California Faucets Porcelain Handles bring a rainbow of color to the bath

(Huntington Beach, CA, March 31, 2025) California Faucets proudly introduces a colorful palette of porcelain handles, providing a fresh and fun way to play with color in the bath. Two new handle styles feature authentic porcelain in an array of colors, giving designers and homeowners a new way to use today's trending hues. Available for the sleek and minimal Cayucos Series as well as the classic Del Mar Series, the new handles are great for adding a singular pop of color or coordinating with other bathroom details such as tile, towels, and accessories. From earthy tones such as black, white, and blue to bold shades like orange, red, pink, and yellow there's a color and style for any bath design.

“Colored porcelain brings an extra sense of vibrancy and expression,” says California Faucets Chief Executive Officer Jeff Silverstein. “Whether accenting your faucets in an elegant powder room or adding playful color to a child’s bathroom, the collection elevates both traditional and transitional looks,” Silverstein adds.

Complementing the high-quality solid brass of California Faucets spouts and handles, the new porcelain handle inserts are produced in the small UK city of Stoke-on-Trent. A center of fine porcelain production known as home to prestigious brands such as Royal Doulton and Wedgwood, the area has been the hub of ceramic and pottery manufacturing since the 17th century.

Though the porcelain handles are designed to complement the transitional-to-modern Cayucos Series and the period-correct Del Mar Series, they can be mixed and matched with any of California Faucets faucet designs. With five porcelain shades available, plus red metal and solid metal options, the color combinations are virtually endless. And because each of California Faucets series is available in over 25 artisan finishes, there’s a nearly limitless assortment of looks for creating uniquely stylish bath environments.

List pricing for the Cayucos Series widespread Low Quad Spout faucet with porcelain handles begins at $899 and $907 for the Del Mar widespread faucet with porcelain handles in a Polished Chrome finish.
