California Faucets Rainscape™ Recessed Showerheads Create a Relaxing Rainforest Retreat

The collection of four flush-mount showerheads emulate water found in nature and can be used alone or combined to create the ultimate luxury shower experience

California Faucets Rainscape Collection of recessed showerheads turns the shower into a relaxing rainforest retreat

(Huntington Beach, CA, June 11, 2025) California Faucets introduces the luxurious spa-inspired Rainscape™ Shower Collection. Four sleek, flush-mount showerheads produce distinctly different streams of water, evoking a rainforest vibe. The collection includes a generous 14-inch Rainshower, which offers a soothing downpour of relaxation, plus three rectangular showerheads with flow variations to suit any showering style. They include the gentle, swaying stream of a Motion Showerhead, the relaxing cascade of a Waterfall Showerhead, and another refreshing Rainshower. The ceiling-mounted showerheads may be used individually or, in larger showers, they can be combined to create the ultimate rainforest retreat. Plus, with over 25 artisan finishes available, the solid brass showerheads perfectly coordinate with surrounding bath hardware, making a cohesive design statement throughout the bath.

California Faucets Rainscape Collection (from left) includes a 14" square recessed Rainshower, recessed Waterfall Showerhead, recessed Motion Showerhead, and 14" x 7" recessed Rainshower.

"By offering distinctly different showerheads that you can combine as desired, Rainscape lets you create your own unique rainforest experience at home—but without the anacondas," quips California Faucets Chief Marketing Officer Noah Taft.

The versatile Rainscape Collection is compatible with any shower system and suitable for any size bath. In a smaller space one might use the rectangular Rainshower for a soothing shower experience or pair it with a Waterfall showerhead for an exhilarating combination. In a medium-sized shower, the generous 14-inch square Rainshower, used alone, provides a generous and soothing spa-like shower experience. In bigger shower spaces, one might position two rectangular Waterfall Showerheads on either side of a the 14-inch-square Rainshower. Or, where space permits, one can combine multiple Rain, Waterfall, and Motion Showerheads together for the ultimate spa-inspired shower trifecta.

Constructed of solid brass, Rainscape's ultra-thin faceplate mounts directly to the ceiling, sitting flush for a sleek, clean-lined look. Unlike most recessed showerheads on the market that are made of stainless steel, the Rainscape Collection is built from high-quality solid brass. This allows California Faucets to offer more than 25 artisan finishes, including a selection of PVD finishes that provide an extra layer of durability.

Each showerhead is made-to-order and finished by hand at the company's Huntington Beach factory. With the vast array of finishes to choose from, designers and homeowners alike can coordinate with existing hardware finishes or style a full bath makeover with matching hardware and accessories throughout the bath.

All Rainscape showerheads feature self-cleaning rubber jets for easy maintenance. The collection includes a 14" x 14" and 14" x 7" Recessed Rainshower, a 14" x 7" Recessed Motion Showerhead, and a 14" x 7" Recessed Waterfall Showerhead. List pricing for the Rainscape collection starts at $795 for a 14" x 7" Recessed Rainshower in a Polished Chrome finish.
