(Huntington Beach, CA, September 4, 2025) California Faucets offers designers and design-savvy homeowners the most extensive and customizable wall-mount faucet lineup available. With the growing demand for clean, minimalist aesthetics and space-conscious solutions, wall-mount faucets are evolving from a niche product to more mainstream. Freeing up valuable countertop space, wall mount faucets create a streamlined clutter-free aesthetic, making them a great fit for smaller baths and the perfect choice when a quick, easy wipe-down of countertops is desired.

With a collection that runs the gamut of styles from timeless and traditional to sleek and modern, California Faucets offers a wall mount faucet for any bath design.

“With an extensive array of handle and spout options to mix-and-match to your heart’s content, along with over 25 artisan finishes, the only limit is your imagination,” says Noah Taft, California Faucets Chief Marketing Officer, who notes that with so many choices their customers say there’s no need to look anywhere else. “Why wander the faucet wilderness? California Faucets is your one-stop style shop—no hiking boots required,” Taft quips.

Since they maximize countertop space, wall mount faucets are a streamlined alternative to deck mounted faucets. Their on-the-wall positioning also makes them an eye-catching addition to complement any style of décor. Sophisticated modern choices such as Cayucos, featuring porcelain handles in an array of colors, and San Elijo, which includes stunning teak wood handles, elevate contemporary bath looks while classic styles such as Miramar, with its timeless cross-handle design, and Salinas, with its teardrop-shaped lever handles and white porcelain “hot” and “cold” labels, complement traditional bath styles. California Faucets’ vast collection also includes “industrial chic” options like Descanso Works, with retro wheel handle design, and full on industrial looks such as Steampunk Bay, with its unique Blade notched handle.

Available in both single- and double-handle configurations, California Faucets’ solid brass wall mount faucets offer endless options to customize the perfect look at the bathroom sink. Whether you’re outfitting a compact powder room or making a bold statement in a luxury en suite, there’s a California Faucets wall-mount faucet—and full complement of accessories—that will turn every bathroom into a masterpiece, one faucet at a time.
